

House Resolution No. 2127

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements as high school students; and

Whereas, Madison Mack has attained considerable distinction as a senior at Webster Groves High School from where she will graduate on May 23, 2008, as one of the five top students; and

Whereas, in addition to her success in individual studies and classroom activities, Madison Mack has developed and maintained an excellent reputation for her participation in a Gifted Internship at the Washington University Center for Genome Sciences, the Laurasian Institution's "New Perspectives: Japan" program, the Anytown Institute, the Focus Saint Louis: Youth Leadership program, and the Missouri Scholars Academy; and

Whereas, Madison Mack also has participated in a Gifted Writers Program, taken a Webster University "Accelerated Introduction to Spanish 1" class, earned induction into National Honor Society, received Webster Groves High School Academic Renaissance Awards, attended the Duke University Talent Identification Program, and completed A+ Computer Certification; and

Whereas, Madison Mack has dedicated a considerable amount of time and energy to Matsubayashi-ryu Shorin-ryu karate, for which she has earned the Second Degree Brown Belt; the "Reflections" literary magazine, which she served as coeditor; the women's Lacrosse team; Peer Helpers/Peer Mediation, through which she received Kids Under Twenty One peer counseling and suicide prevention training; the Webster Groves Gay-Straight Alliance; and track/cross country; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of such outstanding Missouri students as Madison Mack:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and academic accomplishments garnered thus far in the life of Madison Mack and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she graduates at the top of her Webster Groves High School class; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Madison Mack.
